

WHY ALL SHOULD AID OGDEN'S COMING FASHION SHOW

Editor Standard: In considering the Ogdén Fashion Show I believe the individual should not ask, "What direct benefits do I get from it?" The question is larger and broader than that. It is a question of Boost Ogdén. I analyze the question something like this:

"I am an Ogdénite. My success here will largely be effected by the success of the town. As an Ogdénite I am one of the big Ogdén family. Anything that the family does for its own affects me. I want to see Ogdén grow—become known. I want to see lots of people come here. I want Ogdén to be looked upon as a live town."

Brigham City has a good advertising agent in her Peach Day.

Salt Lake attracts many people and much attention with her conferences, conventions, fairs, carnivals etc.

California is always in the limelight and shouting her wares to the world. What features has my town? How do people ever hear about us? What are we doing to attract crowds here occasionally?

Well, we have the Fashion Show. The Fashion Show is more than its name indicates. It has the making of a very big affair. Every year it can be enlarged made more attractive, and as it grows, its value will increase. People will come here; perhaps they will like our town; perhaps they will have a good time here; perhaps they will do some trading; perhaps they will say, "That little town of Ogdén is alive." And when they say that, it indicates a friendly feeling of respect for the town. That's what I want them to have.

All right, then, how can I help make this Fashion Show a big success? I'll take as much interest in it as the Executive Chairman takes—it's as much my show as his. I'll give what time I can to committee work. I know that decorations and music and advertising and prizes and all this stuff costs something. I'll chip in as much as I can. I don't expect something for nothing. I'll hold up my end.

This is not a question of what has gone wrong in the city, it's a question of what's going right. I might not like some of the things in the program, but what of that? Everyone cannot be pleased. So here goes. Move over and give me a seat on the band wagon. I'm going to be just as good a booster as you are. (Signed.) GUS WRIGHT.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to the many friends who assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father. In thanking our friends, we wish to give special thanks to those who gave the beautiful flowers, to those who sang so sweetly and to the speakers who spoke the comforting words. May they have the same kindness shown unto them.

GRIEVED TO DEATH OVER SISTER'S LOSS

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—The dead body of Alfred Overend, aged 68 and blind, was found yesterday on the pavement in front of a house where he had spent the night grieving over the death of an aged sister. Miss Elizabeth Overend, aged 73, was killed by a street car several days ago, while on a shopping trip. The brother and sister were never separated for more than a few hours, and when evening came and she did not return, the old man set out in search for her. A friend found him groping about the streets Thursday and took him to the residence of Mrs. W. W. Smith, where he was told of the death of his sister. He was put to bed in a room on the second floor. During the night the household heard him weeping. He had been dead for several hours when his body was discovered. Overend left a fortune of $150,000. As there are no known heirs, the money will probably go to the state.

FRANK EMERY IS IN CITY POLITICS

Salt Lake, Sept. 20.—C. Frank Emery, state sanitary inspector and former sheriff of Salt Lake county, is among the latest candidates in the field for the office of city commissioner.

The announcement of Mr. Emery is significant of a movement for west side representation on the city commission, which has been gaining ground during the past few weeks. Mr. Emery is a resident of the west side and is said to have the support of a large following of west side voters in his race.

At the present time the city commission does not include a representative of the territory west of Main street.

Mr. Emery did not decide to enter the race until yesterday, but will begin the circulation of his petition within a few days. He expects to file it with the city recorder early next week.

Mr. Emery has been a lifelong resident of Salt Lake and served as sheriff two terms until 1908. For two years he has been sanitary inspector for the state board of health. In connection with the movement to have at least one representative

TELL YOUR FRIENDS ABOUT IT

THE STANDARD wants you to know that this is really the greatest offer ever made by a newspaper for the benefit of its readers. Here is a great big beautiful book that would actually retail for more than $4 under usual trade conditions. But it is printed in train-load quantities; it is distributed only through newspapers; it is given to you for the mere cost of production. Why? Every copy that goes out makes NEW friends for the paper; the thousands of new subscribers make a better paper for you. So the benefits are mutual. In no other way could we consider presenting this $4 volume on these terms. You will recognize the advantage then of TELLING YOUR FRIENDS ABOUT IT. Let them know that it is not to be classed with "premium" books; that its output is solely through daily papers; that it is not sold at stores; that it is the acknowledged standard work on Panama and the Canal; and that it was planned and printed wholly and solely for the purpose of more firmly establishing the bonds of friendship that should naturally exist between the newspaper and its readers.

In the city commission from west of Main street, the statement was current last night in many quarters that the "administration ticket" of George D. Keyser and W. J. Tuddenham for the city commission is due for an election change, to come by the dropping of Mr. Tuddenham as the administration machine's candidate, and the selection of some person from the west side as running mate for the present commissioner of parks. It was pointed out that the northeast portion of the city would be virtually the only one represented on the commission should the administration ticket as at first drawn up win out.

CLEVER COUNTERFEITING.

Peterhead, Scotland, Sept. 19.—That counterfeit bank notes so skillfully executed as to deceive local bankers and shopkeepers were made by convicts in the Peterhead prison was a startling discovery made today by Scotland detectives. In printing the bank notes the convicts used paper in which rations had been served them.

SALT LAKERS SPEND HONEYMOON HERE

Salt Lake, Sept. 20.—J. R. Stringfellow and C. H. Denhalter are now married men. The deed was done at Farmington by a justice of the peace Thursday afternoon, after which Stringfellow and his bride, formerly Miss Gertrude Burnham of Granger, Wyo., went to Ogden for a one-day honeymoon, returning yesterday afternoon.

The marriage was sudden and relatives of neither Stringfellow nor Denhalter knew of it until apprised by long-distance telephone from Ogden. The appraisers, however, merely notified the relatives they were married, then "hung up." Considerable speculation was rife in Denhalter and Stringfellow circles as to who the brides were, though the Stringfellow element had a suspicion. The matter was cleared up yesterday when grooms returned with brides. No official reception was held, though it is said that the relatives, forewarned, were armed with cowbells and other hilarious things for the return of the wedding ones. Denhalter and Stringfellow works for the Utah Casket company. Both will establish homes in Salt Lake.

WORE SLIT SKIRT; BLOCKADED STREETS

Denver, Sept. 20.—Because Mrs. Dona Funke wore a skirt slit up both sides to a height of which Patrolman J. H. Duncan did not approve, and because such crowds gathered about her that traffic was momentarily blocked, Magistrate Stapleton will today hand down the first official court decision on what constitutes "proper" dress for women in Denver.

Mrs. Funke is a bride of but six weeks, and came to Denver from Butte, Mont., on her honeymoon. Upon being arrested yesterday there was some question on the propriety of holding her, but Sergeant Barry supported the arresting officer, saying:

"There are two sides to every question, but when there are two tall slits to a skirt it is too much. We have lots of slit skirts, but so far it has all been one sided. This being two sided there is certainly room for argument." Mrs. Funke will contest the charge against her, more "to establish a precedent which the court can follow," as he declares, than to win her vindication. The technical charge against her is of blocking traffic.
